

FedPitch

FedPitch is an innovative initiative providing citizens with the opportunity to present their ideas on ways to improve workforce management in the federal government. FedPitch was launched by 13L, a group of mid-career federal employees committed to promoting effective leadership in the federal government. FedPitch 2009 is co-sponsored by partnership with the Partnership for Public Service, Young Government Leaders, the Institute for the Study of Public Policy Implementation at American University, and the Federal Advisory Committee of the International Public Management Association for Human Resources.

The FedPitch 2009 competition will be held on May 7th at 1:30-3:00pm on the National Mall in Washington, D.C., as part of Public Service Recognition Week. To submit a proposal to pitch an idea at the FedPitch 2009 event, entrants should log on to www.fedpitch.org through April 4, 2009. Finalists for the competition are scheduled to be announced on April 13.
